

Name: Selwyn Armstrong

Selwyn Armstrong went to Ngunguru School from 1927-1931. The school was different then from now because there was only one classroom, there were no flush toilets, horses were ridden to school and they went fishing once per week. Unfortunately for him, Selwyn didn't participate in many physical activities due to his artificial leg.